1. The Scoala de Educatori Politici II (Political Education School II) is a training center for political educators with the rank of officer. The school, which can accommodate 1500 students, is directed by (Lt. Col.) Matei. 50X1-HUM

Excellent food is served during the period of training. The graduates, at the end of the six months training courses, are assigned either to the Militia, the Army, or the Custom Officers' Corps, or are hired as civilians in state institutions.

2. The Scoala de Educatori Politici I graduates political educators with the grade of non-commissioned officer. This school can train from 1000 to 1200 students per training period.
3. In Oradea, on the Galea Armatei Rosii, the barracks of 5 Security Battalion of Shock Troops of the region of Oradea were undergoing renovation. The Battalion, which is equipped with rifles and automatic weapons, has a strength of 1,000 men.
4. In Oradea, on the Galea Armatei Rosii, just across the Reta River (sic) and opposite the barracks of 5 Security Battalion, is the Headquarters of the border squads of the regions of Oradea. They are billeted in the barracks of 10 Regiment of Graniceri. All prisoners caught while trying to cross the border are first brought there. Until 1950 General Ivan was in command of this outfit. Subject could not approach the area because of strict security measures.
5. On the Oradea - Timisoara railroad, 200 to 500 meters from station of Icsia, a new steel double tracked bridge was built in 1950 over the Cris river. The bridge has three spans, each approximately ten meters wide.
6. At a place located about 105 kilometers from Oradea on the way to Cluj, five to nine kilometers off the highway on the right hand side, work was started in autumn 1950 on the construction of a new hydroelectric plant. In autumn 1950, the foundations of the plant were being laid. Through the forest in the Valea Crisului, work was proceeding on the construction of a canal.
